

APPLICATION- Please return before May 15th for priority consideration

WriteBoston's T.i.P. Summer Journalism Institute
July 6 – July 30, 2010*

HAVE YOU REGISTERED WITH THE CITY'S HOPELINE?

If you are a student at/ going into a Boston Public School and will be in high school in Fall 2010...

If you like to write and want to explore the world of media and journalism ...

PLEASE APPLY!

Please write legibly. We cannot process applications if we cannot read them!

Student's Last Name First Name MI Date of Birth

Student's Street Address Town Zip Code Phone Number

Student's Cell Phone Number Student's email address

Current School School 2010-2011 Grade Sept. 2010

Parents' or Guardians' Name

Parents' or Guardians' Address Zip Code Home Phone

Work Phone Cell Phone Parents' E-mail Address

Parent/Guardian signature (required)

If you apply to the city's HOPELINE and are accepted at Teens in Print, you can get paid for reporting and writing stories for this youth newspaper, and you can continue until August 13.

Student applicant must complete the following questions.

(PLEASE WRITE LEGIBLY)

1. What is your interest in media and journalism?

2. What can you contribute (skills, talents, interests) to a newspaper?

3. Do you read your school or local newspaper? Where do you get your news? What do you like/dislike about these sources?

4. What do you hope to gain from the WriteBoston T.i.P. Summer Journalism Institute?

5. Are there stories about Boston teens that are NOT being told? If you could create your own newspaper, what are the stories you'd like to read about and why?

Please call T.i.P. coordinator Ric Kahn at 617-541-2651 or email him at ric.kahn.jcs@cityofboston.gov if you have any questions.

Please fax or send your application and teacher recommendation to: WriteBoston's T.i.P. Summer Journalism Institute, c/o Ric Kahn, coordinator, 7 Palmer Street, Roxbury, MA 02119. Fax to 617-541-2660.

OR

Return your application and teacher recommendation to: The WriteBoston Writing Coach at your school or Writing Center.